

Referentenprofil

Tina Thörner

Professional Experience

- I am a speaker in areas of leadership, motivation and teambuilding. Alongside this I am an entrepreneur and are developing a free and open collaboration platform for education. I have been a professional co-driver in motorsport from 1990- 2011 – living and working around the world in multi-cult teams.
- Since 2011: Speaker, coach and entrepreneur
- 2010-2012: Project manager for school development in Sweden
- 1990-2010: Professional co-driver in motorsport.
- Professional Activities: Speaker, Coach, Trainer, Developer
- In-School Collaborative Initiatives and Leadership: Working with colleagues at Enköpings school; Fjärhundaskolan, in a mentor-mentee relationship while coaching teacher's and students. hockey teams in Switzerland and Sweden as well as an American Sailing team, with administrators during my years as a co-driver in different countries, Chari member at Greatherthen, connect your car (listed companies).
- School-Community Collaborative Initiatives and Leadership with Växjö university, supporting and funding an orphan home in Bangui (CAR), part time working with private schools in Sweden with implementing changes and digitalization "Prolympia" (6 schools)
- In-services, Workshops, or Conferences: I have participated in many workshops and seminars around the world as well as lead over 400 of my own since 2000. In Swedish, English and German. On both national and international levels.
- Extracurricular Activities (School advisor in how to implement changes for students and teachers, Coach "drop outs" that are in special care. Creating educational tools for the youth prison in Sweden.
- Owner of School4You – a digital collaboration platform: A tool for teachers and students to use in education, won first place at the SETT fair in Sweden with school4you in April 2015.

Education

- MBA in management 2015 Stockholm, Sweden
- Economics 1989 Säffle, Sweden